Thanks for the list! Elizabeth has been working with Carter and Rob on briefing packages (just for EPA and CEQ eyes). Your suggestions below are all good and for the most part represent products already at hand, which should be relatively easy to gather and include.

We couldn't quite get to done today, but Liz will send me what she has by Sun evening. An over-all updated project one-sheet (history of our engagement, major concerns of others, and present status) will lead off the folder, with great maps from Pima and visuals from our own fieldwork and photo files. I'll edit and compile as much as possible into one Word doc to send to Jane Mon. morning. If she approves, she or I can send it electronically to Horst, Susan and Russ for them to read in transit.

Folks in the office on Mon (Liz and/or Rob) can print a few hard copies, supplemented with any OPA and Tribal Office contributions, and hand one to Jared that afternoon.

Sound like a plan?

Can you please let me know if you're not able to provide all the necessary briefing materials for Jared by 2pm on Monday. Here's my feeble attempt to pull together a list to start with. I'll leave it up to all of you as for what he should receive, as well as who in the region is taking the lead on such:

Ex. 5 - Deliberative Process

Please print all docs for Jared and leave with me, as well as send me all the documents in one email, by 2pm on Monday. Teddy and I will review such with him.

Huge thanks everyone for your patience with me in the past 3 weeks. This seems like it's shaping up to be a great trip. Hopefully you'll be able to actually start diving into the substantive issues next week!

As always, please don't hesitate to call for anything!
